

The 1st Africa Patients Virtual Regional Meeting

Raising patient voices as a path way to quality and safe care in Africa

August 25th, 2022

Name:	Alex Adusei
Designation:	Executive Director, Women's Hope Foundation
Title of presentation:	Promoting patients and family engagements in global patient safety action plan in Africa

Speaker Profile

Alex Adusei is a World Health Organization Patient Safety Advisory Group Member and Patient Safety Champion in Ghana. He is a Human Right Advocate and Community Health Promoter. He works as a researcher, facilitator, trainer and consultant on Patient Safety issues. Alex promotes health development and advocates for human rights including health rights. He has over 15 years of experience in community health promotion and development with special focus on Health rights including Patient rights. Alex also promotes gender equality and empowerment of women and girls. Currently, he is the Executive Director of Women's Hope Foundation an NGO advancing women and girls human rights and gender equality in Ghana.